

Responding to Sexual Abuse of Inmates in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Men, Women, and Gender Nonconforming Populations
Notification of Curriculum Use
April 2014

The enclosed Responding to Sexual Abuse of Inmates in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Men, Women, and Gender Nonconforming Populations curriculum was developed by the Project on Addressing Prison Rape at American University, Washington College of Law as part of contract deliverables for the National PREA Resource Center (PRC), a cooperative agreement between the National Council on Crime and Delinquency (NCCD) and the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA). The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) standards served as the basis for the curriculum's content and development with the goal of the Responding to Sexual Abuse of Inmates in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Men, Women, and Gender Nonconforming Populations curriculum being to satisfy specific PREA standards requirements.

It is recommended that the Responding to Sexual Abuse of Inmates in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Men, Women, and Gender Nonconforming Populations curriculum be reviewed in its entirety before choosing which modules to use. Any alterations to the original materials require either acknowledgement during their presentation or removal of the PRC and Project on Addressing Prison Rape logos.

BJA is currently undergoing a comprehensive review of the enclosed curriculum for official approval, at which point the BJA logo may be added.

Note: Use of the enclosed curriculum, either in part or whole, does not guarantee that an auditor will find that a facility "meets standards." Rather, an auditor will take into consideration the curriculum used as part of their overall determination of compliance.

Objective

Review state criminal laws regarding sexual abuse of adults and youth under custodial supervision and how laws are interpreted and applied based on gender or sexual orientation/gender identity.

State Laws

Sexual assault laws (including sodomy)

Child exploitation

Staff sexual misconduct laws

Sex offender registration

Vulnerable adult statutes

Mandatory reporting

Sexual Assault

Historically aimed at protecting only women, men not contemplated as victims of sexual assault

Then

- Penetration requirement
- Women had to “fight back” in order to prove assault

Now

- Lack of consent is element of crime
- Complainant credibility is an issue

Sexual Assault Law: Tennessee

Rape

Tenn. Code Ann. § 39-13-503 (2005).

(a) Rape is unlawful sexual penetration of a victim by the defendant or of the defendant by a victim accompanied by any of the following circumstances:

- (1) Force or coercion is used to accomplish the act;
- (2) The sexual penetration is accomplished without the consent of the victim and the defendant knows or has reason to know at the time of the penetration that the victim did not consent;
- (3) The defendant knows or has reason to know that the victim is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated or physically helpless; or
- (4) The sexual penetration is accomplished by fraud.

Sexual Assault Law: Indiana

Rape

Ind. Code Ann § 35-42-4-1 (West 2011).

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who knowingly or intentionally has sexual intercourse with a member of the opposite sex when:

- (1) the other person is compelled by force or imminent threat of force;
- (2) the other person is unaware that the sexual intercourse is occurring; or,
- (3) the other person is so mentally disabled or deficient that consent to sexual intercourse cannot be given; commits rape, a Class B felony.

Sodomy

Prohibits certain sexual practices, traditionally aimed at same-sex sexual acts

Still have these laws on the books:

- Many states don't define oral and anal sex as intercourse
- Many states don't define same sex/sex as intercourse – even if it involves penetration

Sodomy Law: Maryland

MD. CODE. ANN. CRIM. LAW. § 3-321 (West 2011).
Sodomy

A person who is convicted of sodomy is guilty of a felony and is subject to imprisonment not exceeding 10 years.

Sodomy Law: Alabama

ALA. CODE § 13A-6-63 (West 2011)

Sodomy in the first degree

(a) A person commits the crime of sodomy in the first degree if:

(1) He engages in deviate sexual intercourse with another person by forcible compulsion; or

(2) He engages in deviate sexual intercourse with a person who is incapable of consent by reason of being physically helpless or mentally incapacitated; or

(3) He, being 16 years old or older, engages in deviate sexual intercourse with a person who is less than 12 years old.

Child Exploitation/ Statutory Rape

Traditionally these laws were meant to protect only female youth

Michael M. v. Superior Court of Sonoma County, 450 U.S. 464 (1981)

Seventeen year old boy raped a sixteen year old girl and was prosecuted under CA statute:

- "an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a female not the wife of the perpetrator, where the female is under the age of 18 years."

Child Exploitation/ Statutory Rape

Michael sued under equal protection, claiming only men could be held criminally liable

Supreme Court upheld the law, citing CA's interest in preventing pregnancies

- “We are satisfied not only that the prevention of illegitimate pregnancy is at least one of the “purposes” of the statute, but also that the State has a strong interest in preventing such pregnancy.”

Child Exploitation Law: California

CAL. PENAL CODE § 261.5 (West 2011): Unlawful sexual intercourse with person under 18; age of perpetrator; civil penalties

(a) Unlawful sexual intercourse is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person who is not the spouse of the perpetrator, if the person is a minor. For the purposes of this section, a "minor" is a person under the age of 18 years and an "adult" is a person who is at least 18 years of age.

Child Exploitation/ Statutory Rape

After passage of Adam Walsh Act encompasses more than intercourse

Generally covers non-physical misconduct as well as physical abuse

- photos, letter writing, online communications, voyeurism and distribution of illicit materials
- fondling, kissing, inappropriate touching, sexual abuse

Important to understand how this applies to youth serving sentences as adults

Child Exploitation Law: Iowa

Sexual abuse in the first degree

Sexual abuse in the second degree

Sexual abuse in the third degree

Indecent exposure

Child Exploitation Law: Iowa

IOWA CODE § 709.8 (West 2011): Lascivious acts with a child

But...

- To be registered as a sex offender, you must have been convicted of a registrable sex offense
- If the perpetrator is not convicted, or pleads to a lesser offense, the perpetrator will not be required to register

Adult Sex Offender Registration Law: California

CAL. PENAL CODE § 290

A violation of CAL. PENAL CODE § 289.6 (Staff Sexual Misconduct Statute), is one of the enumerated offenses listed under section 290 and therefore does require mandatory registration.

However, a California court has recently held that the registration requirement is unconstitutional as applied to correctional officers and consenting adults. People v. Ruffin, 133 Cal.Rptr.3d 27, 29 (Cal.App. 5 Dist. Nov 02, 2011).

Mandatory Reporting Laws

Mandatory reporting laws require certain individuals to report cases of physical or sexual abuse committed against children and vulnerable adults.

Two types of statutes:

(d) If the alleged victim is under the age of 18 or considered a vulnerable adult under a State or local vulnerable persons statute, the agency shall report the allegation to the designated State or local services agency under applicable mandatory reporting laws.

- Reporting for ALL offenders
- Protecting ALL survivors of sexual assault
