Responding to Sexual Abuse of Youth in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Boys, Girls, and Gender Nonconforming Youth Notification of Curriculum Use
April 2014

The enclosed Responding to Sexual Abuse of Youth in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Boys, Girls, and Gender Nonconforming Youth curriculum was developed by the Project on Addressing Prison Rape at American University, Washington College of Law as part of contract deliverables for the National PREA Resource Center (PRC), a cooperative agreement between the National Council on Crime and Delinquency (NCCD) and the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA). The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) standards served as the basis for the curriculum’s content and development with the goal of the Responding to Sexual Abuse of Youth in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Boys, Girls, and Gender Nonconforming Youth curriculum being to satisfy specific PREA standard requirements.

It is recommended that the Responding to Sexual Abuse of Youth in Custody: Addressing the Needs of Boys, Girls, and Gender Nonconforming Youth curriculum be reviewed in its entirety before choosing which modules to use. Any alterations to the original materials require either acknowledgement during their presentation or removal of the PRC and Project on Addressing Prison Rape logos.

BJA is currently undergoing a comprehensive review of the enclosed curriculum for official approval, at which point the BJA logo may be added.

Note: Use of the enclosed curriculum, either in part or whole, does not guarantee that an auditor will find a facility “meets standards.” Rather, an auditor will take into consideration the curriculum used as part of their overall determination of compliance.

Objectives

- Review state criminal laws regarding sexual abuse of youth under custodial supervision.

- Describe how laws are interpreted and applied based on gender or sexual orientation/gender identity.
State Laws

- Sexual assault laws (including sodomy)
- Child exploitation
- Staff sexual misconduct laws
- Sex offender registration
- Mandatory reporting
Sexual Assault

Historically aimed at protecting only women, men not contemplated as victims of sexual assault

• Then
  o Penetration requirement (still applicable in some places)
  o Women had to “fight back” in order to prove assault

• Now
  o Lack of consent is element of crime
  o Complainant credibility is an issue
A person is guilty of gross sexual assault if that person engages in a sexual act with another person and:

- The other person submits as a result of compulsion, as defined in section 251, subsection 1, paragraph E. Violation of this paragraph is a Class A crime;
- The other person, not the actor's spouse, has not in fact attained the age of 14 years. Violation of this paragraph is a Class A crime; or
- The other person, not the actor's spouse, has not in fact attained 12 years of age. Violation of this paragraph is a Class A crime.
ME. REV. STAT. ANN. tit. 17-A, § 251 (West 2013): Sexual Act

(1) Any act between 2 persons involving direct physical contact between the genitals of one and the mouth or anus of the other, or direct physical contact between the genitals of one and the genitals of the other;

(2) Any act between a person and an animal being used by another person which act involves direct physical contact between the genitals of one and the mouth or anus of the other, or direct physical contact between the genitals of one and the genitals of the other; or

(3) Any act involving direct physical contact between the genitals or anus of one and an instrument or device manipulated by another person when that act is done for the purpose of arousing or gratifying sexual desire or for the purpose of causing bodily injury or offensive physical contact.
Ind. Code Ann § 35-42-4-1 (West 2013): Rape

Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who knowingly or intentionally has sexual intercourse with a member of the opposite sex when:

(1) the other person is compelled by force or imminent threat of force;
(2) the other person is unaware that the sexual intercourse is occurring; or,
(3) the other person is so mentally disabled or deficient that consent to sexual intercourse cannot be given;

commits rape, a Class B felony.
Sodomy

Prohibits certain sexual practices, traditionally aimed at same-sex sexual acts

Still have these laws on the books:
• Many states do not define oral and anal sex as intercourse
• Many states do not define same sex/sex as intercourse – even if it involves penetration
Sodomy Law: Maryland

MD. CODE. ANN. CRIM. LAW. § 3-321 (West 2013): Sodomy

A person who is convicted of sodomy is guilty of a felony and is subject to imprisonment not exceeding 10 years.
Sodomy Law: Alabama

ALA. CODE § 13A-6-63 (West 2013) Sodomy in the first degree

(a) A person commits the crime of sodomy in the first degree if:

- (1) He engages in deviate sexual intercourse with another person by forcible compulsion; or
- (2) He engages in deviate sexual intercourse with a person who is incapable of consent by reason of being physically helpless or mentally incapacitated; or
- (3) He, being 16 years old or older, engages in deviate sexual intercourse with a person who is less than 12 years old.
Traditionally these laws were meant to protect only female youth

Michael M. v. Superior Court of Sonoma County, 450 U.S. 464 (1981)
- Seventeen year old boy raped a sixteen year old girl and was prosecuted under CA statute:
  - "an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a female not the wife of the perpetrator, where the female is under the age of 18 years."
Child Exploitation/ Statutory Rape

Michael sued under equal protection, claiming only men could be held criminally liable

Supreme Court upheld the law, citing CA’s interest in preventing pregnancies
  • “We are satisfied not only that the prevention of illegitimate pregnancy is at least one of the “purposes” of the statute, but also that the State has a strong interest in preventing such pregnancy.”
CAL. PENAL CODE § 261.5 (West 2013): Unlawful sexual intercourse with person under 18; age of perpetrator; civil penalties

(a) Unlawful sexual intercourse is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person who is not the spouse of the perpetrator, if the person is a minor. For the purposes of this section, a “minor” is a person under the age of 18 years and an “adult” is a person who is at least 18 years of age.
Child Exploitation/ Statutory Rape

After passage of Adam Walsh Act encompasses more than intercourse

Generally covers non-physical misconduct as well as physical abuse
  • photos, letter writing, online communications, voyeurism and distribution of illicit materials
  • fondling, kissing, inappropriate touching, sexual abuse

Important to understand how this applies to youth serving sentences as adults

Child Exploitation Laws

Staff Sexual Misconduct

Felony in most states

Consent typically not an issue, especially in juvenile context

Victim credibility is an issue

Lack of physical evidence and timely reporting (delays)

*While not specifically covering juvenile justice agencies, laws exist which prohibit sexual contact with a minor and sexual abuse of persons in custodial settings.
Consent is not a defense to staff sexual misconduct with an offender.

Consent is not addressed by the statute. Statute penalizes offender for engaging in sexual relations with correctional staff, thus, consent can be inferred.

Sex Offender Registration

Registration available for both youth and adults

Many other requirements come with it depending on state
  • Community notification
  • Restrictions on employment
  • Restrictions on residency
Sex Offender Registration

But...

- To be registered as a sex offender, you must have been convicted or a registrable sex offense
- If the perpetrator is not convicted, or pleads to a lessor offense, the perpetrator will not be required to register

Registration can be bargained away in a plea

Can lead to underrepresentation of women on sex offender lists
The following offenses are registrable in Texas:

- Indecency with a child
- Sexual assault
- Aggravated sexual assault
- Prohibited sexual conduct
- Compelling prostitution
- Sexual performance by a child
- Possession or promotion of child pornography

- Kidnapping, if the victim was under 17 years of age

Adult Sex Offender Registration Law: Texas

CAL. PENAL CODE § 290

- A violation of CAL. PENAL CODE § 289.6 (Staff Sexual Misconduct Statute), is one of the enumerated offenses listed under section 290 and therefore does require mandatory registration.

- However, a California court has recently held that the registration requirement is unconstitutional as applied to correctional officers and consenting adults. People v. Ruffin, 133 Cal.Rptr.3d 27, 29 (Cal. App. 5 Dist. Nov 02, 2011).
