Correctional Staff are Named as Mandatory Reporters in State Adult Mandatory Reporting Laws

Source: The NIC/WCL Project on Addressing Prison Rape Fifty State Survey of Mandatory Reporting Statutes (current as of July 2008)

NOTE: While Florida and Missouri do not have adult mandatory reporting statutes, they do have specific reporting clauses in their staff sexual misconduct law making all correctional officials mandatory reporters of offender abuse.

- Correctional staff are included as mandatory reporters in mandatory reporting statutes
- Correctional staff are not specified as mandatory reporters in mandatory reporting statutes
