

State Criminal Laws Prohibiting the Sexual Abuse of Individuals in Lock-Ups

August 2009

Source: The NIC/WCL Project on Addressing Prison Rape 50 State Survey of State Criminal Laws Prohibiting the Sexual Abuse of Individuals in Custody (Current as of August 2009)

NOTE: When the map indicates that a particular setting is covered under the law, either the words themselves (lock-up) appear in the statute or a cross-referenced statute, or the law can be reasonably interpreted to cover those settings.

- | | |
|---|--|
|  | Sexual abuse of individuals in lock-up is prohibited by the law |
|  | Sexual abuse of individuals in lock-ups is not prohibited by the law |